AMUSEMENTS

Butler Theater

At the Butler theater last night one of the best shows ever seen was witnessed by large houses. Bonnie Leonard, that clever comedienne, scored a big hit with her songs. Flynn and Howard kept the audience laughing from the time they appeared till the curtain dropped. This clever team will give an entire change of program this evening.

The pictures for tonight are: "Home Folks," a Biograph drama in which age forgets its own age. "A Rube's Easter at Atlantic City," a good Lubin comedy. "Mockery," a Vitagraph drama and "The Close of the American Revolution," an Edison historical feature and it depicts in a realistic manner the events leading up to the battle of Yorktown, which ended the eight years' struggle and commenced the real history of the United States. Tomorrow the management will show Pathe's great three-reel subject entitled "The Orleans Coach."
